

Presenting
1273 G. Miller Road,
Columbus, TX 78934

This is the one you have been waiting for!! 75 +/- acres of first class recreational hunting land boasting a Custom built 4535 sq. ft. home offering 4 bedrooms, 3.5 bathrooms, a large bonus room and a 2-car attached garage. The home was built with the latest first class materials from top to bottom, that need to be seen to be appreciated, but sure to please the selective buyer.

All the improvements sit high at the rear of the property, lending excellent views of the entire parcel.

The Northern boundary of this tract is the highly sought after Cummins Creek and the Southern boundary is the Colorado River which gives amazing aesthetic appeal of this property. This area is home to an abundance of wildlife and located just a few minutes from Historic Columbus, Texas.

Perfect property for full time living, weekend get-away or corporate retreat.
